CINEMA & FACULTY COURSES ADDED ...
S.G.W.U. FRENCH SUMMER SCHOOL JULY 3 - AUG. 13

Sir George Williams University will conduct a concentrated French Summer School July 3 to August 13.

This is the second year that the University is offering French summer studies. Special summer programs in Sociology and History, English, Applied Social Science, and Geography will continue to be given.

Six French courses, all carrying full university credit, will be offered. These are Introduction to College French, Intermediate College French, Introduction to French Literature, Advanced Composition and Introduction to Stylistics, French Literature of the 19th Century, and French Cinema. Courses are those given in the regular winter session, modified to take advantage of the concentrated schedule. A student may take two courses.

The cinema course is new to French Summer School. Covering French cinema in its vital relationship with contemporary French civilization, it will be given by Marcel Martin of l'Institut de Filmologie, Paris.

Courses will be offered Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. through 4:45 p.m. Students will undertake to speak French at all times while in the Hall Building; for lunch, special tables will be set aside for participants to converse in French in the University cafeteria. A sixty-position dial-access language laboratory, one of the most modern in Canada, will be available to students throughout the morning and afternoon.

New this year is a course in conversational French for faculty members - the audio-visual "Voix et Images de France" program. It will be offered twice daily from July 2 to August 13, five days a week, each two-hour session being followed by a one-hour lab period. The program can be used with students with a considerable range of previous preparation, including complete beginners. Some 25 faculty members are expected to become summer students in this "blitz" course.
